

A Bespoke Wedding Discovery Journal

Nandini Khanna & Maneesha Nagrath

Dear Bride / Groom to be.

Thank you for choosing to begin this journey with us.

This journal has been created with one intention—to understand you. Not just your style, but your story, your values, and the vision you carry for one of the most significant chapters of your lives.

Before we begin curating your wedding wardrobe, we want to listen. We want to know what moves you, what inspires you, and what you have always imagined when you close your eyes and picture your wedding day.

There are no right or wrong answers here. Write freely. This is your space.

We are honored to be part of your story.

With warmth,

Nandini Khanna & Maneesha Nagrath

NM Wedding Concierge

Our Philosophy

"We do not simply style brides and grooms. We create the confidence, elegance and presence that become part of their most treasured memories."

At NM Wedding Concierge, we believe that true luxury is not found in labels — it is found in the quiet confidence of wearing something that was chosen entirely for you.

Every detail we curate is guided by one question: Does this feel like her? Does this feel like him?

We work with discretion, intention, and an unwavering commitment to excellence.

How to Use This Journal

This journal is your space to think, reflect and express freely.

Before we begin your styling journey together, we would love to understand your story — your aspirations, your aesthetic, and the vision you hold for your wedding.

There is no need to prepare. Simply write as you feel. Some questions may take a sentence; others may take a page. Both are equally welcome.

Your responses will guide every decision we make on your behalf — from the first designer appointment to the final fitting.

Take your time. This is the beginning of something beautiful.
